She said, "I will fill my
I will put my wildcat

Little  put on her hat
and cape.

"I will be a good witch,"
she said.

She found a woodpecker

and wiggly worms.
She put them into
her box.

"Wolf, be good," she said.
Guess where she put the wolf?

It was a wishing well. "I wish..."

I wish I had something bigger
for my things,"
said

Little W.

Little W found a wheelbarrow.

Away
she went...

down the road
to the water.

"I will wade in the water,"
she said.

"Wow," said a walrus.
"What a wacky witch."

Little W said,

"You belong in my box,
walrus."

Little W put the walrus into the box.

The walrus
winked at the wolf.

A small illustration of Little Red Riding Hood, wearing a red hooded cloak and a basket, standing on a green grassy bank and looking towards a pond. In the background, there are several green trees.

Little Red Riding Hood went back to the water.

A large, grey whale is shown in a pond. The whale's head and back are visible above the water. In the background, there are green trees.

A whale was in the water.

"You
are so big," said Little

Little found

a wagon,

a big, big wagon.

Away she went, right into a...

wall.

What was behind
the wall?

Watermelons.

"Let's have a watermelon party,"

said Little
